

Sydney Cruises

By: Laura M. Sands

As one of the most spectacular natural harbours in the world, Sydney Harbour is best enjoyed onboard one of the daily Sydney cruises. Located in Port Jackson, Sydney Harbour is home to architectural wonders like the iconic Sydney Opera House and Harbour Bridge, both of which render a visit to Australia incomplete without touring. As the bustling state capital of South Wales, Sydney is one of the most beautiful cities in the world and viewing it from the picturesque harbour is an experience that every visitor will cherish.

With its incredible promontories and abundant reserves, Sydney Harbour is one of the most popular tourists destinations in the city. Sydney cruises begin at the scenic Campbells Cove Pontoon and, depending upon guest's preferences, the cruise vessel can transport passengers to the ever popular tourist location of the historic Taronga Zoo with its incredible presentation of local and exotic birds, reptiles and animals. Or passengers may be delivered to the relaxing Quarantine Beach, which is also surrounded by beautiful bush.

Sydney cruises offer special group cruises, individual packages and exquisite dinner cruises. Passengers are delighted at the hospitality extended toward them by a friendly, knowledgeable staff always onboard to assure the best cruising experience. With safety being of primary concern a qualified skipper is onboard during every excursion, as are highly trained and experienced deckhands.

Fine gourmet dining is available with most packages, which includes drinks and desserts. When making cruise reservations, guests with special dietary needs are advised to notify the booking agent so that special accommodations may be made. For larger groups, exquisite catering specials are available making Sydney cruises one of the most luxurious dining experiences around. Spectacular sights combined with delectable courses make each trip one that that is certain to impress even the most discerning guests.

In a friendly and fun atmosphere, Sydney cruises offer guests more than just warm sun and a scenic excursion. Passengers can enjoy a lazy afternoon of dining, relaxing and sunbathing, or a more adventurous afternoon of swimming, kayaking and fishing during the cruise. With hours to spend onboard a vessel fully equipped for a variety of activities, all ages are able to enjoy the diverse activities offered on Sydney cruises.

With just over 4 million people residing in Sydney, the city is a bustling hub of activities that locals and tourists alike can enjoy. From lavish beaches and world-famous monuments, Sydney is a city alive with history and pulsating with entertainment. The incredible harbour is considered the jewel of Sydney and is constantly brimming with traffic from ferries, private yachts, cruise liners and commercial cargo vessels streaming in and out of the popular ports. Cruises offer visitors a chance to feel a part of the harbour's pulsing action and get some fantastic photographs of some of the most spectacular sights in all of Australia.

One day spent enjoying Sydney cruises is all that it takes to create lasting memories. Whether taken individually, with a group or chartered for a special event, Sydney cruises are available to allow everyone the opportunity to enjoy the harbour in unparalleled scenic luxury.
